Your Guide to our Services in South Warwickshire

Your local charity for local people

Your Vision Support Centre

The Vision Support Centre is open to everyone. Why not visit us for:

- Advice and support
- Information about our services
- Demonstration equipment
- IT training
- Magnifier and rehabilitation sessions
- Speakers, events and exhibitions

The Stratford Vision Support Centre is held at the Christadelphian Hall, Rother Street, Stratford-upon-Avon, CV37 6LU every Tuesday from 10am - 12 noon

IT4U

We provide one-to-one IT training to meet your personal learning goals:

- Training available for smart phones, tablets and laptops
- A wide range of demonstration equipment so you can 'try before you buy'
- Talented volunteers to support your learning

Home Visitor Service

We have a team of dedicated volunteers who will visit your home regularly to help you manage your correspondence, read a newspaper or magazine, check 'use-by' dates on food in the fridge or simply to offer a friendly face and a listening ear.

Please be aware, that we sometimes have a waiting list for this service.

Clubs

Our Clubs offer entertainment, refreshments and companionship. Transport is provided to and from the venue at a subsidized rate. We have clubs in:

- Alcester: Thursday afternoons
- Henley Lunch Club: Wednesday lunchtimes
- Shipston: Monday afternoons
- Southam: Wednesday afternoons
- Stratford: Thursday afternoons
