Your Guide to our Services in Rugby

Your local charity for local people

Your Vision Support Centre

The Vision Support Centre is open to everyone. Why not visit us for:

- Advice and support
- Information about our services
- Demonstration equipment
- IT training
- Magnifier and rehabilitation sessions
- Speakers, events and exhibitions

The Rugby Vision Support Centre is held at Rugby Baptist Church, Regent Place, Rugby CV21 2AG from 10am - 12 noon every Wednesday

IT4U

We provide one-to-one IT training to meet your personal learning goals:

- Training available for smart phones, tablets and laptops
- A wide range of demonstration equipment so you can 'try before you buy'
- Talented volunteers to support your learning

Home Visitor Service

We have a team of dedicated volunteers who will visit your home regularly to help you manage your correspondence, read a newspaper or magazine, check 'use-by' dates on food in the fridge or simply to offer a friendly face and a listening ear.

Please be aware, that we sometimes have a waiting list for this service.

Clubs

Our Clubs offer entertainment, refreshments and companionship. Transport is provided to and from the venue at a subsidized rate. We have clubs in:

- Rugby VIP Club: Wednesday afternoons
- Hamilton House: Friday mornings
- Hillmorton Club: Tuesday evenings

For more information about any of our services, please email enquiries@warwickshire.vision or call 01926 411331
